Hesse
The Wanderer and His Shadow
Gunnar Decker
Translated by Peter Lewis
★ A Kirkus Reviews Best Nonfiction Book of the Year
“Shows that Hesse’s life was an uneasy compromise between his spiritual absolutism, which pushed him in the direction of irascible isolation, and his human needs.”
—Adam Kirsch, New Yorker
“Decker’s wonderfully rich, insightful biography is a welcome reminder of Hesse’s painfully honest exploration of selfhood and is destined to become the standard work on this difficult, reclusive and often self-destructive writer.”
—P. D. Smith, The Guardian

Elements of Surprise
Our Mental Limits and the Satisfactions of Plot
Vera Tobin
★ A PopMatters Best Book of the Year
★ Honorable Mention, Thomas J. Wilson Memorial Prize
“In Elements of Surprise, John le Carré rubs shoulders with Agatha Christie, Jane Austen with Graham Greene, in a wide-ranging analysis of a trope and practice that moves across all genres... A fascinating analysis of an element of plot that we might just take too much for granted.”
—Times Higher Education
2018 344 pp. $35.00 • £25.95 cloth 9780674980204

Not All Dead White Men
Classics and Misogyny in the Digital Age
Donna Zuckerberg
“A chilling account of trolling, misogyny, racism, and bad history proliferated online by the Alt-Right...Zuckerberg makes a persuasive case for why we need a new, more critical, and less comfortable relationship between the ancient and modern worlds in this important and very timely book.”
—Emily Wilson, translator of The Odyssey
2018 288 pp. $27.95 • £20.00 cloth 9780674975552
Du Bois’s Telegram
Literary Resistance and State Containment
Juliana Spahr

“An important look at the history of American literature.”
—Library Journal (starred review)

“A brilliant inquiry into the institutions—from the CIA to the foundations and literary magazines it funded—that inform and shape literary production...Our complicit freedoms are brought out in the open in this thought-provoking and erudite book.”
—Claudia Rankine
2018 256 pp. $29.95 • £21.95 cloth 9780674986961

To See Paris and Die
The Soviet Lives of Western Culture
Eleonory Gilburd

“(A) highly original and readable work...Gilburd covers a wide range of Western culture—literature, travelogues, art, film, music, theater—and chronicles Soviet reactions to it.”
—Katerina Clark, author of Moscow, the Fourth Rome

“A captivating, sensual portrait of late Soviet emotional life.”
—Kate Brown, author of Plutopia

A World of Empires
The Russian Voyage of the Frigate Pallada
Edyta M. Bojanowska
★ A Financial Times “Summer Books” Selection

“Finely wrought and gracefully written...Bojanowska examines Goncharov’s travelogue as both a unique literary work in its own right and a historical artifact that offers revealing insights into the Russian colonial imagination.”
—Daniel Beer, Times Literary Supplement

“A fascinating, kaleidoscopic work buzzing with insight and overflowing with ideas.”
—Literary Review
Belknap Press 2018 $35.00 • £25.95 cloth 9780674976405

Gropius
The Man Who Built the Bauhaus
Fiona MacCarthy

The definitive new biography of the father of architectural modernism.

“MacCarthy’s lucid biography shows Gropius as a man of ideas who has indelibly influenced how we conceive of and respond to the environments that shape our everyday lives.”
—Mohsen Mostafavi, Harvard Graduate School of Design

The Art of Being
Poetics of the Novel and Existentialist Philosophy
Yi-Ping Ong
★ Honorable Mention, Thomas J. Wilson Memorial Prize
“A beautifully conceived book that brings existentialist philosophy into creative dialogue with literary texts. Full of original and compelling insights into the philosophical content of the novels examined, the intricate readings are absorbing and show how literature subtly reaches beyond itself into our lives.”
—Garry L. Hagberg, Bard College

The Ocean, the Bird, and the Scholar
Essays on Poets and Poetry
Helen Vendler

“It’s one of [Vendler’s] finest books, an impressive summation of a long, distinguished career in which she revisits many of the poets she has venerated over a lifetime and written about previously. Reading it, one can feel her happiness in doing what she loves best. There is scarcely a page in the book where there isn’t a fresh insight about a poet or poetry.”

Beginning at the End
Decadence, Modernism, and Postcolonial Poetry
Robert Stilling

“A book that scholars across the discipline are going to have to read.”
—Stephanie Burt, Harvard University

“Convincingly demonstrates that decadent texts and imagery were central to the project of postcolonial writing, and carried a political charge that few others have noticed. It will figure in discussions of both decadence and global modernism for many years to come.”
—Matthew Potolsky, University of Utah

The Story of Myth
Sarah Iles Johnston

“With unparalleled audacity and finesse, Sarah Iles Johnston cuts loose from traditional scholarship and connects us with the complicated, mysterious, high-wattage world of Greek myths. How did they gather their power and energize audiences? Johnston shows us how stories about Zeus, Theseus, Arachne, or Hecate not only entertained, engaged, and animated in their time but also did the important cultural work of shaping beliefs and values.”
—Maria Tatar, author of Enchanted Hunters
